

Fly fishing for women

Tuckamore Lodge

Women's week

with Kate Blubaugh

Dates 2012:

From July 01 till July 06

Take advantage of exceptional fishing and a unique wilderness experience that will surely be a dream of a lifetime. Grab your rod and a friend and head out to beautiful Tuckamore Lodge in Newfoundland, Canada. Learn how to cast a fly line, tie on a salmon fly and catch your first ever Atlantic Salmon.

If you don't want to come over alone or want to bring your none-fishing husband, friend or girlfriend we arrange a very special price for them as well.

From Deer Lake: Exit 16 in Deer lake follow the Viking Trail Route 430 to route 432. First time you see the ocean on your right look left for sign to Tuckamore lodge.

From St. Antony Airport: Follow Grenfell Drive (straight across the street from Airport Road) and follow road for 27km. Do not go into town of Main Brook.

Cross Salmon River bridge and drive a further 2.2km. Watch for our sign on your right.
